

Drawdown Board

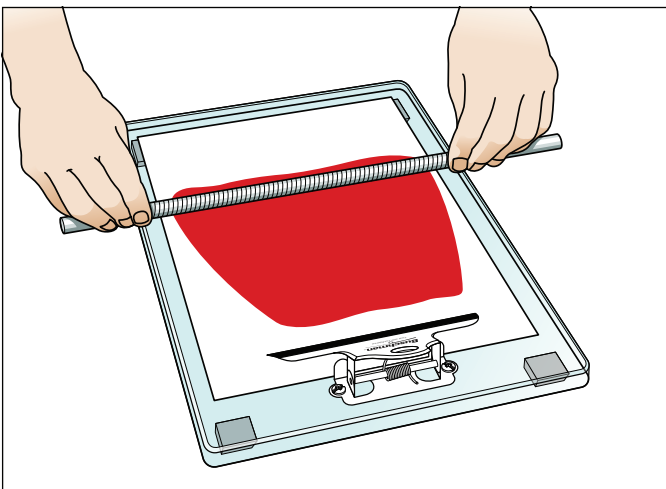

Instructions for using the laboratory drawdown board

Step 1: Clip the sample substrate to the drawdown board.

Step 2: Using a syringe or other application method, place a bead of liquid coating near the top of the sample.

Step 3: Grasp the ends of the drawdown rod firmly. Using steady pressure and not allowing the rod to rotate, draw the rod through the liquid coating, spreading the film across the sample.